

Counterfeit Currency

There has been an increase in the amount of counterfeit currency being passed on the McMaster campus. Security Services has obtained current information to assist in the detection of counterfeit currency.

Members of the community are invited to contact Sgt. Cathy O'Donnell, Crime Prevention Programs ext. 26060 to arrange for a counterfeit currency detection seminar for their area.

Detecting Counterfeit

The Bank of Canada has prepared information on Canadian Bank Notes. They have also prepared information on Counterfeit Detection and the Security features that have been built into our Canadian Currency.

If you Suspect Counterfeit Currency

- Check more than one security feature
- Retain the note if possible
- Record the details
- If possible note the passer's description and obtain identification if possible

Contact Security by dialing "88" from any campus phone
